AUTHORIZER UPDATE - Merrideth Okonkwor presents on GVSU's school performance reports for 2021 are public; GVSU reports "Detroit Achievement Academy (DAA) has consistently demonstrated effective organizational practices and fiscal stability. The academy maintained strong student attendance and continues to be an attractive option for area families. DAA's management organization is integrated within the school and provides strong day-to-day support, particularly in operations. DAA has strong awareness of obstacles and integrates strategic planning to address any challenges. The academy has completed numerous renovations. With strong independence from the Board of Directors, the academy has maintained consistent and effective leadership. The transition to remote learning was accomplished through intentional choices culminating in a well-designed plan to offer families learning options. Students appear to be supported and staff turnover is low. While the most recent academic results indicate some learning loss, the CSO believes that the academy has the internal capacity to help students overcome these setbacks through the student-centered, academically focused approach that characterizes the school.”; GVSU launches new Core Value Awards - board can nominate school
